The Honorable Harold D. Donohue
U. S. House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Donohue:

Thank you for your letter of 29 April 1954, in behalf of [redacted] who has applied for a position with this Agency.

[redacted] first contacted us on 16 October 1952, and the following week we sent him application forms to fill out and return. They were received on 4 December, and on 27 January we requested [redacted] to come to Washington for an interview at his own expense. He replied that this would not be convenient until a later date and that he would contact us again, which he did on 15 June 1953. On 3 July we wrote [redacted] that, unfortunately, we had no suitable vacancy for him at that time, but we would keep his papers in our active file. [redacted] contacted us once again on 29 January 1954, requesting that his file be reviewed. His file was reviewed, and the situation had not changed, and he was so notified on 5 February 1954. Since receipt of your letter [redacted] papers have been reviewed once again in the light of current vacancies, and I regret to say that we still do not have a suitable opening for him. We are keeping his application in our active file, however, and shall contact him should the situation change.

Your interest in the Central Intelligence Agency is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

OGC/WLP:jps
